

Establishment of the Unit

The Quality Assurance Unit was established at the school of Nursing at Badr University in Cairo by the decision of the Council on the 3/6/2018 to be an independent unit that reports to the Dean of the College administratively and technically follows the Quality Assurance Center at the university. the unit is the organizational entity technically competent to review and follow up the application of education quality standards in all fields and work on the continuous development adopting a set of goals that are consistent with the university's strategy and the goals of the National Authority for Quality Assurance and Accreditation.

The unit is responsible for quality management within the institution and has all documents and evidence related to the applied practices of quality management in the institution.

Vision of the Quality Unit

The Quality Assurance Unit at the Faculty of Nursing - Badr University aspires to be a fundamental and comprehensive pillar for the continuous development of performance to achieve international accreditation.

Mission of the Unit

The Quality Assurance Unit at the school of Nursing - Badr University is committed to spreading the culture of quality in the college community, and to follow-up and evaluate performance to ensure quality in all elements of the educational system, research and service activities provided by the college and the development of human resources in light of the standards of the National Authority for Quality Assurance of Education and Accreditation in order to achieve comprehensive quality and accreditation

Objectives of the Unit

The Quality Assurance Unit at the school of Nursing - Badr University is committed to spreading the culture of quality in the college community, and to follow-up and evaluate performance to ensure quality in all elements of the educational system, research and service activities provided by the college and the development of human resources in light of the standards of the National Authority for Quality Assurance of Education and Accreditation .