The School Governing Values:

Transparency: in presenting problems, solving problems, and evaluation of procedures.

Commitment: to values and ethics to ensure excellence.

Giving: continuously to advance the school and to improve the educational process.

Fidelity: and dedication to work.

Collaboration: between the school family and the surrounding community.

Innovation and openness to everything new in the educational and research process

Care: promoting health and preventing the spread of disease.

Integration: cooperation with other societal and international institutions through partnerships

Self-development: providing students with an opportunity to apply life sciences, which contribute to their self-development and encourages them for life learning

Teamwork: the development of teamwork among faculty members and students

Belonging and citizenship: deepening belonging to the homeland, the university, and the college.

The strategic goals of the school 2019-2020

Developing the institutional performance of the college to create an environment that encourages distinction, creativity, and innovation.

Establishing mechanisms to activate the strategic plan

Establishing mechanism to follow up commitment to the vision and mission (updating and disseminating it)

Modernizing the college organizational structure.

Supporting leaderships and the administrative set up.

Spreading the culture of quality and developing performance in the college.

Define policies and regulations to ensure integrity and transparency.

Development of information and documentation systems

Increase the competitiveness of students and graduates locally and regionally.

Updating and developing the academic program in line with the needs and requirements of the labor market

Adopting the NARS for the educational program

Developing teaching and learning strategies that keep pace with the developments in modern educational systems

Activating the students' role in the educational process

Encouraging and activating student activities

Enhancing the efficiency of faculty members and the supporting staff.

Building a scientific research system that keeps pace with the needs of society.

Providing an environment that supports excellence in scientific research

Preparing distinguished researchers.

Preparing for applied research

Enhancing credibility and ethics in the nursing profession and scientific research in the faculty.

Developing community service plans and programs for sustainable development

Active participation in the development of community service and the external and internal environment of the school

Spread awareness of environmental issues and community service.

Follow-up of graduates and communication, in addition to linking graduates with the labor market

Strengthening the partnership and cooperation between the college and international, regional and local institutions in research, educational and community fields