

Annual Report for SDG4

Quality Education

BUC has been recognized as one of the fastest-growing universities in Egypt and the Middle East/North Africa (MENA) region, having experienced an exponential rise in enrolment of 1,000 students in 2014, to the present enrolment exceed 20,000 for the 2023-2024 academic year. <https://buc.edu.eg/about-us.html>. It seeks to promote an innovative, research-based, and community-engaged culture while offering top-notch instruction in a range of subject areas. By aligning its mission with the principles of sustainable development, BUC is committed to helping achieve the national development goals.

Why BUC?

Are you ambitious, passionate, and eager to be a future agent of change and innovation? Here is why BUC makes the perfect sense for you!

 We offer diverse academic programs from which to choose.	 We are accredited by regional and international bodies.	 We have innovative educational systems that meet global standards.	 We offer affordable tuition, scholarships, and merit discounts.
 We are located in the heart of New Cairo and adjacent to the New Capitol.	 We offer comfortable transportation.	 We have a dedicated English language learning center with AMIDEAST.	 We have safe, comfortable, state-of-the-art facilities and buildings on campus.
 We have a lively campus with lots of vibrant student activities.	 We have impressive athletic courts and stadiums on campus.	 We have access to local and international markets

Institute Of Professional Development and Continuing Education (IPDCE): BUC offers various training programs and workshops for lifelong learning, catering to both students and the broader community. The university encourages continuing education through professional development courses, thus fostering skills that align with the evolving job market.

BUC promotes gender equality in education with female student enrollment and initiatives aimed at empowering women in various academic fields. The university provides accessibility and support through programs aimed at students with disabilities.

BUC collaborates with various national and international institutions to enhance educational quality and exchange best practices in teaching and research. BUC Schools have many programs in Virtual and Physical mobility /exchange of students and academic staff: School of linguistics and Translation, school of veterinary, school of applied, school of engineering and school of applied art.