

Criteria for choosing the Executive Director

The Executive Director should :

- Be a faculty member of the institution
- Have experience in quality assurance and higher education development
- Have completed accredited quality assurance training (NAQAAE or equivalent)
- Demonstrate leadership and team management skills
- Possess strong communication and interpersonal skills

Criteria for choosing members

- expertise in quality assurance and educational development from within and outside the faculty.