

Mission

The Quality Assurance Unit at the Faculty of Human Medicine – Badr University is committed to supporting and enhancing the quality of academic and administrative performance through continuous evaluation and development of the educational process, student services, research activities, and community and environmental engagement, in alignment with the standards of the National Authority for Quality Assurance and Accreditation of Education (NAQAAE), while upholding ethical and societal values.